

Skill-Based Amusement Machine Prizes

Frequently Asked Questions

1 Can skill-based amusement machines ("SBAMs") award prizes?

Yes. An SBAM may reward a player, if at all, with merchandise prize or redeemable vouchers for merchandise prize not to exceed $10 wholesale value per play.

2 Must an SBAM award a prize for playing?

No. There is no requirement to provide a prize; however, if a prize is available, certain conditions must be met.

3 What is a "merchandise prize"?

Any item of value; excluding prohibited prizes.

4 What are the prohibited prizes?

- Cash, gift cards, or the equivalent
- Plays on games of chance, lottery tickets, bingo, or instant bingo
- Firearms, tobacco, or alcohol
- Redeemable vouchers for any other prohibited prize

5 What are "redeemable vouchers"?

Any ticket, token, coupon, receipt, or any other non-cash representation of value

6 I have an SBAM at my business, can I give a gift certificate to my business as a prize?

No. Gift cards and gift certificates are prohibited, even if to the business where the SBAM is played.

7 Can I provide bitcoin or other cryptocurrency as a prize?

No. Digital and alternative currencies like bitcoin, litecoin, and ripple are prohibited prizes.

8 Does the cash prohibition apply to coin pushers that have quarters?

Yes. Quarters or any other type of currency may not be awarded as a prize for any SBAM, including coin pushers.

9 Are gas cards prohibited prizes?

An SBAM may award a gas card provided that it can only be used to purchase gasoline. An SBAM may not award a gift card that can be used generally at a gas station.

10 Is there a limit to the value of the prize I can award?

Yes. SBAMs may only provide prizes with a wholesale value of $10 or less per play.

For a more information, visit the Commission website:
www.casinocontrol.ohio.gov/skillgames